Turmoil in the financial markets and its effect on insurance companies

The markets are experiencing a period of unprecedented turmoil and I am certain that many of you are asking what this means as it relates to insurance companies.

We have included links below to some information about a number of the companies we represent. As you will see, they are all in very strong positions and confident with their current and future stability.

We want you to know that we understand your concerns and we share them. The goal of this email is to provide you with the results of our due diligence in making sure the companies we represent remain financially solid.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact our office. We are here to answer your questions.

Best regards,
Thomas W. Bishop, CLU
President
